21 Due to the COVID-19 health emergency, Defendant is presently unable to produce the 22 Administrative Record necessary to answer and adjudicate this action. Accordingly, Defendant 23 filed an ex parte application to stay this action. The Court finds good cause to grant the stay of 24 this action until Defendant regains the ability to produce the Administrative Record.

25 Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that this matter is stayed until such time as the Social 26 Security Administration regains the capacity to produce the Administrative Record necessary to 27 answer and adjudicate this case. The stay of this matter shall automatically lift upon the 28 Defendant's filing of the Administrative Record. Thereafter, case deadlines will proceed

1 according the Court's previously filed case management order and the local rules. No motion or 2 other notification will be required to lift the stay.
